BUSINESS LICENSE APPROVALS

Nikki Kay reported there was a request for use of the practice ball field for an upcoming softball tournament. She wanted to let them know the games would go until midnight and that would be past the curfew for the park. Nikki also stated the people organizing the tournament wanted to bring additional lights in for the practice field. A question was raised about the noise and playing music after dark. Chief Cox stated the Council could choose to suspend the noise ordinance for just that one night. Council members asked Nikki to see if she could get additional information because it sounds like there is different information being told to the Recreation District. Council members also did not want any music to be played after dark.
